Lohmann Animal Health International Introduces Updated Web Site

Winslow, Maine (Oct. 24, 2006) — Lohmann Animal Health International (LAHI) has launched an updated Web site, www.lahinternational.com, that reflects the company's commitment to one brand AviPro®.

AviPro® brings together all previous LAHI products, including the MBL, Vineland and TAD products under one label.

The Web site reflects LAHI's commitment to being solely dedicated to the avian market. It also presents the company's worldwide product line.

Through the site, visitors can access and download extensive product & support information, company contact information and reference materials, including the LAHI Product Reference Guide, Autogenous Reference Guide, Guide to Poultry Anatomy and Diseases and Material Safety Data Sheets.

General disease tech sheets, specific product tech sheets, and vaccine administration & miscellaneous tech sheets are readily available. It also features easy access to contact information for LAHI sales and technical support staff.

The Web site includes all previous editions of the company's technical Avian Insights newsletters.

Based in Winslow, Maine, LAHI is a member of the PHW Group, which comprises 30 companies that produce avian vaccines and poultry for the global market. For more information, contact LAHI at (800) 655-1342 or visit the company's website at www.lahinternational.com.
